SUSAN SADLER

Professional Certified Coach

Susan Sadler is a professional certified coach specializing in leadership and executive presence.

Susan coaches professionals to elevate their leadership presence so they are more confident and increase their gravitas. This helps accelerate their performance and take their career to the next level.

When clients partner with Susan, they benefit from her extensive international experience. Her results-orientation, creative solutions, and business expertise are undeniable assets.

Susan's point of difference is her Presence Accelerator methodology that reveals a client's strengths, values, undiscovered assets, expertise and passions. This forms the foundation to learn and apply the core elements of presence.

When you engage Susan, you access 20,000+ hours of experience, knowledge and application of communication style, influence and persuasion, powerful presentations, high stakes stakeholders and more.

She has been featured in the media -- magazines, radio, podcast -- and is an international conference speaker.

Susan's vision is to help others enter every room with confidence, building inner strength for outward leadership.
